

Rupert the chocolate angel

David W Solomons

Well there's mince-pies and sher-ry and pud-ding and whis-ky and there's can-dies and choc'-lates to make us all fris-ky but do you know the most fa - mous sweet of all?
Ru-pert the choc'-late an - gel wait-ed by the fire all day 'cos he was told that San - ta would be com-ing on his sleigh. All of the o - ther choc'-lates told him that he was a fool They were a - fraid of melt-ing so they kept in shade and cool But that night old San-ta came a-long at Ru - pert's re - quest and he gulped the sher - ry down, doffed his boots and had a rest then he looked round at Ru - pert melt-ed now and quite de - ceased gave out a lit - tle gig - gle and had a lit - tle choc' - late feast!
